

Synapse - audiovisual experience engine

Autofill album, artist, and track for each track node

Display title, artist, and album for current video on the node and at the bottom bar

RBAC-based authentication system (firebase)

OAuth connection with google to store playlists in the cloud

User profile page, capture as many music-related data points as possible

- Profile picture (optional)
- @username (unique, mandatory)
- Display Name (mandatory)
- Location (optional)
- Bio (optional)
- Fav genres (add from a preset searchable dropdown or put custom text) (optional)
- Favorite song(s) (optional)
- Public playlists (optional)
- Total listens, average listens, activity graph (optional)

Drag-and-drop, and add/delete optional sections

Share playlists with other people and see other's profiles

Set playlists and profile to be public/private

Settings with light/dark mode, preferences, switch between playlists, etc

Banner ads and ads that play between songs (should warn the user with a yellow marker before playing mid-roll)

Public workshop where users can browse public playlists and profiles

Separate playing and editing screen, where playing screen lets users visualize future songs, splitting logic, return to desired branches, large play button, audio visualizer, song controls